The Terra Sancta Organ Festival (Holy Land Organ Festival) is an international music event and a cultural activity in which the Custody of the Holy Land allows everyone to enjoy the beauty of its pipe organs, an asset that would otherwise be restricted to Latin Catholics in their liturgies.

The Terra Sancta Organ Festival is the only music festival taking place in different countries. Our hope is that, starting from Israel, Palestine and Greece, the festival will eventually reach in the next years the other places where the Custody of the Holy Land has a presence: Jordan, Lebanon, Cyprus, Egypt and..... Syria (Inshallah).

The first edition of the festival will take place in Israel and Palestine starting November 5 until November 28, 2014. A "Prelude" of the event was held on the Greek island of Rhodes from September 30 to October 4.

The organists are all internationally known like the American Mark Pacoe (organist and music director of the Church of St. Malachy in Times Square in New York), the Germans Ulrich Pakusch (organist and music director of the Basilica of Werl) and Axel Flierl (the organist and choir director of St. Peter and Paul Basilica in Dillingen an der Donau, Bavaria) and the Italian Eugenio Maria Fagiani (organist in the Symphony Orchestra "Giuseppe Verdi" of Milan).

Today's Musician
AXEL FLIERL (GER)

November 27 in Jerusalem
November 28 in Bethlehem

In 2006, Axel Flierl was assigned the position of titular organist and conductor at St. Peter's Basilica in Dillingen an der Donau (Bavaria/Germany), where in 2007 he initiated the international organ festival "Dillinger Basilikakonzerte," around the large Sandtner-organ as its founder and artistic director. He conducted several oratorios as Bachs Magnificat, the Christmas Oratorio, Handels Messiah, Mozarts Requiem and the Coronation mass, Haydns Paukenmesse as well as Mendelssohns Elijah.
