

Andrea Lagi (Italy)

The biography of each musician is published as it has been sent by its author

[from Google Translator]

Andrea Lagi was born in Follonica (GR) June 7, 1982.

He began studying trumpet at the music school band in the country under the guidance of Bonello Bonarelli.

In 1995 he joined the City Musical Band "Giacomo Puccini" and later in different realities bandistiche area.

He graduated in trumpet the 05/10/02 at the Musical Institute "P. Mascagni" of Livorno under the guidance of Maestro Marco Nesi which follows internship.

In 2005 he joined the course of professional qualification for Teachers Orchestra at the Fondazione Teatro del Maggio Musicale Fiorentino.

He participated in many master classes for brass including Maestro Rex Martin, Andrea IRA, Andrea Conti, Giancarlo Parodi.

He has collaborated with various orchestras classic Italian landscape including the Orchestra del Giglio of Lucca, the Sanremo Symphony Orchestra, the Orchestra of the Cel of Livorno, Lavinia Symphony Orchestra, the Orchestra Education in May with whom he worked solo, the Symphony Orchestra "City of Grosseto" which in December 2004 he took part in the International Festival of Craiova (Romania), the Orchestra of the Maggio Musicale Fiorentino.

He has played under the direction of conductors such as Zubin Mehta, Daniel Oren, Federico Maria, Alexander Sotonikov, Claudio Abbado, Nasser Ibrahim.

He teaches trumpet at the schools AMF Bonarello Bonarelli Follonica.

In 2012 he is part of the ensemble in the Trinity which includes Ori Simone and Elisa Cenni with which performs solo.

In November 2013 it is called by the orchestra of the Puccini Festival in Torre del Lago to take part in the concert "Peace Symphony" Square at Meydan in Dubai.