From October 4 to October 9, 2022 the tenth season of "Organ & Music Festival Rhodes" will take place in Rhodes in St. Francis' church with four concerts organized by the Custody of the Holy Land – Roman Catholic Church in Rhodes. Chris Paraskevopoulos, organ teacher and administrator of the organ department at the "Nikolaos Mantzaros" Conservatory of Athens, is the artistic director. The Organ & Music Festival Rhodes since 2015 has become part of the broader Terra Sancta Organ Festival, the largest international festival for pipe-organ in the Middle East and Levant also organized by the Custody of the Holy Land.

Concerts will be held in St. Francis' Church (28 Dimokratias st.- St. Athanasios Gate) with admission free. The program features international, national and local artists. In Greece opportunities to listen to the sound of the organ are few and rare. The pipe organ installed in the Church of St. Francis in Rhodes, where most of the concerts will be performed, is the largest church organ in all of Greece. All information and detailed programs can be found on the website www.tsorganfestival.org and www.catholicchurchrhodes.com.
